

Timbertop Camp Technology Agreement

As a director/volunteer for Timbertop you must agree to observe and abide by the following technology guidelines.

If you identify yourself as a Timbertop director/volunteer in a social networking profile, on a website, on a group page, or in a weblog, and/or use the Timbertop name, logo, or any official Timbertop photograph or text, everything and anything you post or say can be seen as a reflection of Timbertop Camp, even if you do not/did not intend it to do so or even if you state otherwise.

- 1) As a Timbertop Camp volunteer, I must request and receive written approval from the board to:
 - a. using the Timbertop name, logo or camp photograph
 - b. adding a link from a group page, profile, or other site to the official camp website
 - c. including text or photographs that are the property of Timbertop Camp
 - d. including photographs of campers or other volunteer members
 - e. creating a camp "group page"
- 2) I agree to be respectful of Timbertop Camp, its programs, the campers, and other volunteers in all communications in my profile, blog, or other Internet site(s) and communications. This includes the following:
 - a. I will not use obscenities, profanity or vulgar language.
 - b. I will not engage in harassment or intimidation.
 - c. I will not post comments that are derogatory with regard to individual person's race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, disability, or any other protected status.
 - d. I will not engage in sexually explicit, suggestive, humiliating, or demeaning comments.
- 3) I agree not to use a social networking profile, group page, weblog or other Internet medium to discuss behavior that is prohibited by Timbertop, not limited to alcohol or drug use, sexual behavior, delinquent behavior, destruction of property, harassment, or intimidation.
- 4) Once I identify myself as a Timbertop Camp volunteer, the general public may see me as an ambassador or spokesperson of/for camp. I understand that as a condition of being a volunteer I must agree to and adhere to these guidelines. I understand that if any of the guidelines outlined in this measure are violated, it may result in disciplinary and/or legal action including possible volunteer termination.
- 5) I understand that I may not give my contact information including cell phone number, e-mail, IM address, weblog, address or social networking site name or other contact information to a camper without parental or board consent. Timbertop Camp does not encourage or discourage contact between campers and camp staff in the post-camp season.

I have read and understand the above guidelines and agree to their terms.
